SPECIAL NOTICES. SERIAL SAVINGS AND BUILDING ASSOCIATION, NEW 22D ISSUE OF STOCK.

NEW 23D ISSUE OF STOCK.

The books for subscription to stock in the new 23d issue of the Serial Savings and Building Association are now open and dues can be raid on the same any day from 9 o'clock a m. in 420 o'clock p. m. at the office of the Secretary and Treasurer, John A. Prescott, Keilogg Building, No. 1416 Fetreet northwest. Shares are $1 cach, commencing with May and payable monthly thereafter. The last issue of stock was the largest the "Serial" has made, and the present one, it is expected, will be as large, if not larger. The business of the "Serial" for the past year has been exceptionally prosperous. No better opportunity could be offered for investment of monthly savings where interest at the rate of 6 per cent. pet annum is promised and always paid.

ROBERT G. CAMPBELL, President.

EARLY MORNING NEWS.

Forgery by Whelesale.

Charles E. Woodruff, who was formerly secretary of the Young Men's Republican Club of New Britain, Conn. has confessed a series of gigantic forgeries aggregating $500,000 in the past six years. Qé this amount be has managed to make good all but about $40,000. His plan of procedure has been to forge the names of friends, among whom were some of the wealthiest citizens of the place, paying the obligations as they matured with money which he borrowed at usurious rates, sometimes paying $100 a week Interest. Prequently he would meet his forged notes by other forgeries, always skiffully covering his tracks. He has been interested in a number of new-paper ventures, all of which were unsuccessful.

Naloons Wiped Out. Saloons Wiped Out.

This year begins the enforcement of to be liceuse law which limits the number of the control of new liceuse law which limits the number of liceused places in Hoston to 780, and as there were over 2,000 applicants, there are nearly 1,500 drinking-places that must close by May 1. The list of rejected applications includes some of the most prominent desirer within the city limits. There is not a single sporting-house in town, except Councilman Billy Mahoney's place on Lagrange street, that has been granted a liceuse. Stolen by a Gypsies.

Stolen by a Gypsies.

William, the 12-year-old son of George W.
Fox, of Washington, Warren County, N.

a band of gypsies. The boy was seen with the gypsies at Stewartsville, where they tried to give him to some boatmen. Failing in this they continued on their journey. The last seen of them was on the river road below Easton.

Attempt at Political Murder,
Editor Webber, of the Republican Daily

Editor Webber, of the Republicus Daily Leaflet of Little Rock, Ark., attempted to shoot General Powell Clayton Saturday morning while in a saloon. Political differ-ences are said to be at the bottom of the trouble. Both Webber and Clayton were created. Their test will take place to arrested. Their trial will take place Inventor Edison was in New York Saturday and emphatically disclaimed identity with the person who was received by President Carnot at Paris on Friday. The New Assistant Land Commissioner
The appointment of ex-Governor Stone of Iowa, as Assistant Land Commissioner, when he had been urged for Commissioner, and endorsed by such Republicans as Senator Allbon, created some surprise. It was thought singular that the subordinate should be appointed before the chief, but it is whispered that the President had a good reason for his course. It is said that sworm testimony was forwarded to the Land Commissioner from Oklahoma, charging newlyappointed government officials with having conspired with others to give them facilities for procuring land not engaged by the general public, and not contemplated by law. According to the story, the Commissioner at once submitted this testimony from creditable sources to Secretary Nobie, and he fromediately laid it before the President ordered the most rigid investigation, and the Land Commissioner sent out special agents, and by other steps began the inquiry. It was decided that this investigation ought to be endorsed by Commissioner Stone was appointed assistant commissioner, with the assurance that upon Commissioner should be advanced to the first place.—[Baltimore American.] The New Assistant Land Commissione

Not Big Enough.

The late Duke of Buckingham once related that when he joined the London and Northwestern Board, on the day of the first meeting after the election, he went to Easton Square to attend it. He was too carly, and on asking a porter who was hauging about where the directors' room was, he was told that he had come too soon, and went away. On returning some little time later he again found the same man, who gave him the same information. After a longer interval the Duke again came across his friend, whom he questioned as to whether the directors were sitting. The man, very much irritated at being so often accosted, looked at him and said: "There's no use you coming about a place here; you ar'n't big enough."

A PRESIDENT IN BAD PAVOR. The Order of Tonti Resolve That He is a dew Hater.

The Order of Tonii Resolve That He is a dew Hater.

Delegates representing fifteen out of twenty lodges of the Order of Tonii met in Chicago yesterday aftersoon at the Grand Peelie Hotel to prefer charges against H. K. Wheeler of Philadelphia, Supreme President of the order. Jacob Hirsch, a high officer of the order in Himots, called the meeting and stated its object. He began with a violent diatribe against Mr. Wheeler as a Jew hater, accusing him of malcionaly slandaring the whole people and backing up his charges by reading four letters written within the past two years by Mr. Wheeler to William Maskel, who has been organized lodges of the order in the State. In each of these he violently denounces the dews and urged Mr. Maskel to admit nove of them to any lodge organized by bim on any condition. In one letter he wrote of them as being as bad as dynamiters, Anarchists and thugs, and in another he calls them "vermin." In a third he asserts that they must be be blackballed at all hazards, as they kave proved very undesirable members of all societies they have gotten into. Nearly all the delegates were Jews and they became very indignant, when the letters were read. There are about 1,500 members of the order in this city and fully one-third of them are Jews, while the others are not opposed to them, as is shown by the fact that so large a percentage has gotten in. Resolutions were adopted emphatically denouncing the conduct of Presienth Wheeler as intolerant and unfraternal, and demanding that he be deposed from his position and expelled from the order. These will be formulated and presented to a meeting to be held at the same place next Sunday, when they will be at once sent to the supreme trustess with a call for a special meeting, at which the charges will be pushed. Unless action is taken the Chicago lodges insist that they will form an independent order.

A Pastor's Farewell.

A Pastor's Farewell.

Rev. Charles F. Sontog, pastor of Grace Reformed Church, Fifteenth and O streets northwest, for the past nine years, yesterday preached his farewell sermon to a large and appreciative congregation. He based his remarks on Job, 26, 24: "Remember That Thou Magnify His Works." Mr. Sontag, during his pastorate, has increased the value of the church property at least $20,000, all the buildings being now free from debt or incumbrances. The membership has increased to three times the number he found it, and altogether the pastorate was the result of untiring zeal and energy. Mr. Sontag leaves for his new field of labor with the best wishes of the people. The church is now without a pastor, and, apparently, will be for a short time as the consistory is in communication with Rev. Dr. U. Hielman of Alexandria, Pa., who will-probably accept the call they have extended him.

An Old Man's Helpful Daughters. The two handsome daughters of Jacob Roxbury of Alexandria are the two most talked-about young ladies in that city, and are the heroises of the day. By their own untiring efforts and personal canvass of the voting precincts of Alexandria these young ladies secured the nomination of their aged father as the candidate for Superintendent of Gas. Miss Alice Roxbury visited in person the 1,600 voters of the district and presented her father's claims for the office, and Miss Virginia Roxbury, who teaches school, distributed through her scholars the voters tickets. On the day of the primary election Miss Alice visited the polls, and in person led the cohorts of her father's supporters to victory. An Old Man's Helpful Daughters.

Sermons for Temperance.

Yesterday was appointed world's temperance day by the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and each local union throughout England, Canada, France, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, China, Japan, India, Burmah, Turkey, Siam, Africa, the Hawaiian Islands, New Zealand, Australia, Mexico and the United States was requested to secure the delivery of a sermon and the teaching in a Sunday-school in the locality of the union on subjects pertaining to temperance. The objects of the union are to unify the work of women in the temperance and social reforms all the world over, and to circulate a petition addressed to all the Governments of the world for the overthrow of the alcohol and optum trades. The Elks Did Not Participate. The Elks Did Not Participate.

The funeral of Herman Edel occurred, yesterday from his late residence, 708 E street northwest, and was largely attended by members of the Sængerbund, Mænner-chor and Schuetzen Verein societies and Armenius Lodge, F. A. A. M. The funeral ceremonies were conducted by the Roy. Wm. L. Elterich, and the palibearers were Frank Schwarz, John L. Vogt, E. Ruppert, L. Goldschmidt, William Helmus, C. Heurich, W. Koch and P. Lattemer. Mr. Simon Wolff made an address. Mr. Edel was a member of the Elks Lodge, and that organization had been invited to share in the ceremonies, but at the last hour Armenius Lodge of Masons, the lodge conducting the ceremonies, decided not to al-he ceremonies, decided not to low the Elks to participate. Mr. Ward McAllister Here Mr. Ward McAllister Here.

Ward McAllister, the dethroned leader of the Four Hundred, arrived in this city yesterday to meet his son who has come on from California. He said to a reporter that the Centennial Celebration would be a grand success, as everything had long since teen arranged, and now it was simply a question of carrying out the details. He said about the ball that the dancing would not last over fifteen minutes, and would commence as soon as the President reaches his box. Until the quadrille d'honeur is over there will be no other dancing. The quadrille will be danced without side couples.

The Cheroker's Prescably Inclined.

The Cherokee's Peaceably Inclined The Cherokee's Peaceably Inclined.

An old Indian fighter on duty at the War Department, in speaking to-day of the prospects of trouble between the Indians and the Oklahoma settlers, said that he anticipated no trouble at all. "The Cherokee's," he remarked, "are inclined to be peaceful, and while some individual conflicts are likely to occur, it is hardly probable that any general trouble will take place. That thirst for blood and rapine among the Cherokee's has been thoroughly cured." Should any fighting take place between the Indiana and the white men it will be mainly, I think, attributable to whisky.

University of Virginia Alumni. At the close of the meeting of the alumni of the University of Virginia, at the National Museum, Saturday, after This Chitro's report closed, a resolution was adopted to the effect that final action as to the formation of an alumni association would best be deferred till June. The committee which has had the matter in charge, of which frofessor Cabell is chairman, will then make their final report. An Honest Massachusetts Man

Charles W. Hartshorn of Taunton, Mass. has paid into the Treasury $2,090.44, which he says is due the Government as taxe upon an estate he is settling, which was due twenty-one years ago, under the old "successive tax" law. The debt had beer forgotten by the Government officers, at the law has been repealed since then. Called Him a Dude, Ed. INDERSTANDINGLY CONSIDERED

UY clothing as 0 you buy anything else. Suit your needs.

Common sense is the one and only essential element to be employed to insure success.

There's clothing - then again there's clothing Here's where your discrimination must come in.

Have you ever traded with us? Didn't we use you in an honest, straightfor-ward way? Strictly business-but in a manner susceptible of but one construction-a desire to please? That was in our intention.

Here's the distinction we make. We'll handle ordinary clothing at no price-first-class clothing at a moderate, fair price. You'll find us a safe channel to sail in. Don't you think so?

A word or two about this first-class clothing. We've got a line of suits-and a big line-at $10-that we call first-class. They're not silk lined, but they're cut and made out of nobby, creditable fabrics and they'll fit you just as well as a $40 suit. That's candid. We're satisfied ... anxious, in fact, to have them compared with anything that's being offered for $15 elsewhere.

To-day we are making a display in one of our Seventh street windows of these very suits. We've got as many as is possible in there ...but lots more just as handsome-every whit as good-up stairs.

At $15 we have endeavored to attain the usual $20 excellence-both in quality and originality of the designs. We're pretty well satisfied with the result. How does it strike you?

In this grade we've got some imported fabrics--especially meritorious are the Irish Tweeds. They were woven for us. The patterns are unmatchable. We made them up. Our artists can discount foreign taste and skill. There are all sorts of combinations in this grade---loud and moderate. Some we like, some we don't-but those may be the very ones that'll suit some of you best. Next grade is $20---more imported goods-greater quantity of them. Certainly the fabrics are finermore elaborately trimmed. In these we've aimed to compete with the custom tailors--and they're holding their own pretty well, too. Plain colors. Novelties. Everything that is fash-ionable. They'll fit. We don't make any qualifica-tions. We know how they're cut-and there can be but one result -- SATISFACTION. From $25 and lapping over to $35, we've not spared a thought, nor a stitch that would add to extreme elegance and refinement. Every advantage known to the clothing world we've employed in making these suits.

All the rich, fancy and plain weaves have been curved and turned into model garments by our thoroughly competent art-ists. You can't compare these with anything readymade, for it's a step or two higher than others have got. But you can look at them in the light of made-to-measure garments and compare them with what would cost you in the reighborhood of $50 in the merchant tailor's hands.

This is an outline of what we've been doing in anticipation of the coming season's demands. We've one price---the lowest it's possible to put on such qualities --- marked in plain, everyday figures ... and every bit of responsibility is litted from your shoulders. We guarantee everything we sell.
